UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

CHEYENNE MILLER

NO. 3:14-CR-367-B

DEPUTY CLERK RAN

2014 DEC 12 PM 2:57

U.S. DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF TX
FILED

PLEA AGREEMENT

Cheyenne Miller, the defendant, Ezekiel Tyson, Jr., the defendant's attorney, and the United States of America (the government), agree as follows:

1. Rights of the Defendant: Miller understands that he has the following rights:
  - a. to plead not guilty;
  - b. to have a trial by jury;
  - c. to have his guilt proven beyond a reasonable doubt;
  - d. to confront and cross-examine witnesses and to call witnesses in his defense; and
  - e. against compelled self-incrimination.
2. Waiver of Rights and Plea of Guilty: Miller waives these rights and pleads guilty to the offenses alleged in Count Seventeen of the Indictment charging a violation of 21 U.S.C. § 841(a)(1) and (b)(1)(C), that is Possession of a Controlled Substance (methamphetamine, a Schedule II controlled substance) with Intent to Distribute that Controlled Substance. Miller understands the nature and elements of the crime to which he is pleading guilty, and agrees that the factual resume he has signed is true and will be submitted as evidence.

3. Sentence: The maximum penalties the Court can impose for Count Seventeen of the Indictment include:

- a. imprisonment for a period of not more than twenty years;
- b. a fine not to exceed $1,000,000.00, or twice any pecuniary gain to the defendant or loss to the victim(s);
- c. a term of supervised release of not less than three years, which is mandatory under the law and will follow any term of imprisonment. If Miller violates the conditions of supervised release, he could be imprisoned for the entire term of supervised release;
- d. a mandatory special assessment of $100;
- e. restitution to victims or to the community, which Miller agrees will include restitution arising from all relevant conduct, and not limited to that arising from the offense of conviction alone; and
- f. costs of incarceration and supervision.

4. Court's Sentencing Discretion and Role of the Guidelines: Miller understands that the sentence in this case will be imposed by the Court after consideration of the United States Sentencing Guidelines. The guidelines are not binding on the Court, but are advisory only. Miller has reviewed the guidelines with his attorney, but understands no one can predict with certainty the outcome of the Court's consideration of the guidelines in this case. Miller understands that he will not be allowed to withdraw his plea if the applicable advisory guideline range is higher than expected, or if the Court departs from the applicable advisory guideline range. Miller will not be allowed to withdraw his plea if his sentence is higher than expected. Miller fully understands that the actual sentence imposed (so long as it is within the statutory maximum) is solely left to the discretion of the Court.

5. Mandatory special assessment: Miller agrees to pay to the U.S. District Clerk the amount of $100.00, in satisfaction of the mandatory special assessment in this case.

6. Defendant's Agreement: Miller shall give complete and truthful information and/or testimony concerning his participation in the offense of conviction. Upon demand, Miller shall submit a personal financial statement under oath and submit to interviews by the Government and the U.S. Probation Office regarding his capacity to satisfy any fines or restitution. Miller expressly authorizes the United States Attorney's Office to immediately obtain a credit report on him in order to evaluate his ability to satisfy any financial obligation imposed by the Court. Miller fully understands that any financial obligation imposed by the court, including a restitution order and/or the implementation of a fine, is due and payable immediately. In the event the Court imposes a schedule for payment of restitution, Miller agrees that such a schedule represents a minimum payment obligation and does not preclude the U.S. Attorney's Office from pursuing any other means by which to satisfy Miller's full and immediately enforceable financial obligation. Miller understands that he has a continuing obligation to pay in full as soon as possible any financial obligation imposed by the court.

7. Forfeiture: Miller agrees not to contest, challenge, or appeal in any way the administrative or judicial (civil or criminal) forfeiture to the United States of any property noted as subject to forfeiture in the Indictment and in any bills of particulars, or seized or restrained by law enforcement officers during the investigation(s) related to this criminal cause. Miller consents to entry of any orders or declarations of forfeiture regarding all such property and waives any applicable statutes of limitation, and any requirements (including notice of forfeiture) set out in 19 U.S.C. §§ 1607-1609; 18 U.S.C. §§ 981, 983, and 985; the Code of Federal Regulations; and Rules 11, 32.2, and 43(a) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. Miller agrees to provide truthful information and evidence necessary for the government to forfeit such property. Miller agrees to hold the government, its officers, agents, and employees harmless from any claims whatsoever in connection with the seizure, forfeiture, storage, or disposal of such property.

8. Government's Agreement: The Government will not bring any additional charges against Miller based upon the conduct underlying and related to Miller's plea of guilty. The Government will dismiss, after sentencing, any remaining charges in the pending Indictment. The Government will file a Supplement in this case, as is routinely done in every case, even though there may or may not be any additional terms. This agreement is limited to the United States Attorney's Office for the Northern District of Texas and does not bind any other federal, state, or local prosecuting authorities, nor does it prohibit any civil or administrative proceeding against Miller or any property.

9. Violation of Agreement: Miller understands that if he violates any provision of this agreement, or if his guilty plea is vacated or withdrawn, the Government will be free from any obligations of the agreement and free to prosecute Miller and others for all offenses of which it has knowledge. In such event, Miller waives any objections based upon delay in prosecution. If the plea is vacated or withdrawn for any reason other than a finding that it was involuntary, Miller also waives objection to the use against him of any information or statements he has provided to the government, and any resulting leads.

10. Voluntary Plea: This plea of guilty is freely and voluntarily made and is not the result of force or threats, or of promises apart from those set forth in this plea agreement. There have been no guarantees or promises from anyone as to what sentence the Court will impose.

11. Waiver of Right to Appeal or Otherwise Challenge Sentence: Miller waives his rights, conferred by 28 U.S.C. § 1291 and 18 U.S.C. § 3742, to appeal from his conviction and sentence. He further waives his right to contest his conviction and sentence in any collateral proceeding, including proceedings under 28 U.S.C. § 2241 and 28 U.S.C. § 2255. Miller reserves the rights (a) to bring a direct appeal (i) of a sentence exceeding the statutory maximum punishment, or (ii) an arithmetic error at sentencing, (b) to challenge the voluntariness of his plea of guilty or this waiver, and (c) to bring a claim of ineffective assistance of counsel.

12. Representation of Counsel: Miller has thoroughly reviewed all legal and factual aspects of this case with his lawyer and is fully satisfied with that lawyer's legal representation. Miller has received from his lawyer explanations satisfactory to him concerning each paragraph of this plea agreement, each of his rights affected by this agreement, and the alternatives available to him other than entering into this agreement. Because he concedes that he is guilty, and after conferring with his lawyer, Miller has concluded that it is in his best interest to enter into this plea agreement and all its terms, rather than to proceed to trial in this case.

13. Entirety of Agreement: This document is a complete statement of the parties' agreement and may not be modified unless the modification is in writing and signed by all parties.

Agreed to and signed this 11th day of December, 2014.
